THANKSGIVING DANCES
NEXT WEEK

lowed at 4 o'clock by the Dansant.
The dances will start at nine o'clock and end at twelve both nights. The tax on the Cotillion Club dance will be $2.00 and the Dansant, $1.50. The Sophomore Cotillion will be free.
Freshmen will be allowed to attend provided that they wear yellow ties and come with a girl, or in company with another Freshman who has a girl. A committee will be at the door to see that no Freshman fails to carry out these rules. It is advisable for the Freshmen to be at the Gym before nine o'clock.

You are invited to be present at the Y. M. C. A. Thanksgiving Party at 8 p. m. tomorrow night.

PHI EPSILON PI ON CAMPUS

Delta Chapter of Phi Epsilon Pi National Fraternity was formally installed at Washington and Lee after a banquet at the Dutch Inn on the evening of November 17. The initiates were: A. Phelps, H. L. Goodman, M. H. Levi, L. K. Schwartz, and A. T. Altschul.

NOTICE SOPHOMORES

The dance cannot be a success unless you pay your class dues at once. Make out your checks and hand them in to Ty Cobb or Wright.

Why put off joining the Alumni, Inc., any longer, Alumnus? It has to be done. Send in your check to the Treasurer today.

No matter which way you weigh the merits of our Winter overcoats, "money-back" backs them.

Prices always fair.
A normal trading profit on actual cost is all we ever ask.
