Delta Chapter of Phi Epsilon Pi Fraternity was founded on the W&L Campus in 1920, Phi Ep is now in theory and in practice the only completely non-sectarian fraternity at Washington and Lee.

Delta is especially proud of the scholarship trophy which it holds this semester, having a house average of 1.967. The members of the chapter are engaged in all phases of campus life. Mel Lapes is in Phi Eta Sigma, and is on the Rifle Team. Alan Marx is on the Ring-tum-Phi and is newscaster for Home Edition. Jerry Kahn is Assistant Business Manager of the Shenandoah, and is a member of the Seminars in Literature Committee. Eric Hanssen is the Assistant Editor of the Southern Conservative.

Bill Surbaugh is on the varsity debate team. Kline Bolton is a varsity wrestler and a Robert E. Lee Scholar, as is Bob Brooks. Ken Bernhardt and George Meier are on the freshman basketball team. Social member Lamar Lamb is Executive Committeeman for the Sophomore Class, and with President Dick Herman is co-editor of the new campus publication, The Question. Dick is also in the Troubadors. Mike Edwards is on the freshman soccer team, and Fred Taussig is manager of freshman basketball. Tom Carpenter is a reporter for the Ring-tum-Phi.

Socially, Phi Ep had a tremendously successful year. Various theme parties and the big week ends highlighted the year.

Delta Chapter is grateful to Dr. Louis Hodges, our faculty advisor, and Mr. Jay Grossman, our alumni advisor, for their time, their invaluable advice, and their support this year.

The Alpha Epsilon Chapter of the Zeta Beta Tau Fraternity became a recognized fraternity at W&L in 1920. The fraternity has established itself in all phases of university life.

Scholastically, Alpha Epsilon has a fine record. Last year ZBT was awarded the W&L Scholarship Trophy. Thirty-six per cent of the house made the Dean's List, and seven members made the Honor Roll.

In campus affairs, the fraternity has contributed greatly. Tony Schlesinger is Vice-President of the SSS, a member of the Student Control Committee, Rush Chairman of the IFC, and is in Who's Who. Randy Cole is Chairman of the Student Library Committee and Liberty Hall Committee. Tom Supak, Danny Markstein, and Arthur Sher are members of the SWMSFC; Markstein, Greene, Angel, and Wallenstein are in the SSS; Barry Greene is on the Cold Check Committee; and Lou Rosenstock, the Assimilation Committee.

ZBT has had many fine combos, such as the Isley Brothers, Hank Ballard and the Midnighters, and Huey "Piano" Smith, during the four major school dance week ends and the regular house parties, including an Alumni Week End. ZBT is well represented in both the Mongolian Minks and the "13" Club.

Athletically, ZBT's are found in all sports. Art Portnoy is captain and Dick Coplan a member of the Rifle Team. Stu Yoffe, Bill Angel, and Mike Levin are on the football team. Joe Rosenbloom plays soccer. Tom and Jon Supak, Murry Jacobson, and Dave Hyman are on the basketball squad. Brothers Cohen and Angel are on the track team, and Barry Greene is on the baseball team.

ZBT is grateful for the aid given to it by its faculty advisor, Dr. Edwin Griffith. ZBT is most of all proud of one of the finest ladies a fraternity could have as a house-mother—Mrs. Forrest Fletcher.

RIFLE TEAM

The Washington and Lee University Rifle Club, an affiliate club of the National Rifle Association of America, fired a total of thirty-five matches during the 1962-63 season. These included varsity and freshman shoulder matches, postal matches, and a military match. The average for the season was slightly better than .500.

The varsity team was composed largely of sophomores from the freshman squad of last year. Only three upperclassmen were left from the predominantly senior team of a year ago. Academic difficulties and transfers also eliminated a number of individuals who were regarded as some of the brighter prospects among both freshmen and upperclassmen.

The season was characterized by relatively close scores in all matches. The triangular match in Washington, D.C., was the photo-finish of the season as George Washington University nosed out the Generals by one point.

The freshman team was somewhat overmatched by firing in the elite military-school league. In spite of this handicap, the freshmen gave an extremely fine performance as they improved their team score every match, and by the end of the season had increased their match average by more than 100 points. Freshman captain David Head and his regulars will provide fine varsity material in the coming seasons.

The club champion and the winner of the National Rifle Association Silver Medal was Donald Wylie, a Delta Upsilon senior, with a season-match average of 279.25. Team captain Arthur Portnoy, a Zeta Beta Tau senior, was runnerup with a season average of 273.25.
