DID YOU KNOW

Fifty thousand people representing forty-eight states and a score of foreign countries visit Lee Chapel every year, adding a cosmopolitan touch to our campus.

* * *

A century ago firearms were excluded from the grounds of Washington College, no duel could be fought, and "wine, ardent spirits, and gun powder" were strictly forbidden. No student could enter a "tippling house" without permission from some member of the faculty."

* * *

"Old George," who adorns the bell-tower of Washington Hall, was carved in 1842 by Captain Mathew S. Kahle, Lexington cabinet maker, whose compensation for his work was less than $100. His material consisted of a pine log, a broad-axe, a fast-adsze, and chisel.

* * *

Washington and Lee ranks the seventh oldest of the 680 colleges and universities in the United States.

* * *

The first collegiate courses in journalism in the world were offered at Washington College during Lee's presidency.

* * *

Two other Southern schools, Sewanee and Virginia, offered Lee positions at the close of the war, before he accepted the presidency of Washington College.

Sweet Briar was originally founded as a school for poor mountain girls.

* * *

John Drinkwater, English poet, has called the Washington and Lee campus "One of the most beautiful in the world." Washington and Lee scored the highest football triumph in 1915 when it defeated Morris Harvey College, 103-0.

* * *

The first school of commerce in the United States was founded at Washington and Lee.

* * *

The Wilson Memorial Bridge is the longest concrete foot-bridge in the world.

* * *

Lexington is only a town, but Buena Vista is rated as a city.

* * *

Two famous honorary fraternities, Omicron Delta Kappa and Tau Kappa Iota, were founded on the Washington and Lee campus.

* * *

Washington and Lee draws over 79 per cent of its student body from states other than Virginia.

* * *

Washington and Lee is the only school in the United States authorized by George Washington to bear his name.
