

Washington and Lee University's Student Association for Black Unity (SABU) held its annual ball recently as one of the highlights of Black Emphasis Month which has brought several nationally prominent speakers, including actress Ruby Dee, to the campus.