

VMI Plans Dress Parade For W&L

The Virginia Military Institute Cadet Corps will honor the Washington and Lee student body with a full dress military parade this Thursday. Si Bunting, captain of the cadet corps at VMI, stated that a review of troops would be held in honor of W&L.

The entire W&L student body is invited to attend the cadet reviewing of the troops. The review is being held on Thursday, November 1, at 4:15 at the VMI parade grounds.

As an effort to show W&L men a phase of the military student's life, this invitation is being made to strengthen the relationship between VMI and W&L. This idea of staging a military parade originated with Regimental First Captain Si Bunting, cadet corps commander.

The VMI corps is to be reviewed by the VMI heads of staff, with the top W&L ROTC cadet officers. Sam Bloch, Battalion Commander, heads the representative group from the university.

Bunting stated that he felt that, "something is needed to improve the relationship between the two schools. I believe that this parade is a step in that direction."
